The Fictional Christopher Nolan Todd McGowan, 2012-09-01 From Memento and Insomnia to the Batman films The Prestige and Inception lies play a central role in every Christopher Nolan film. Characters in the films constantly find themselves deceived by others and are often caught up in a vast web of deceit that transcends any individual lies. The formal structure of a typical Nolan film deceives spectators about the events that occur and the motivations of the characters. While Nolan's films do not abandon the idea of truth altogether, they show us how truth must emerge out of the lie if it is not to lead us entirely astray. The Fictional Christopher Nolan discovers in Nolan's films an exploration of the role that fiction plays in leading to truth. Through close readings of all the films through Inception, Todd McGowan demonstrates that the fiction or the lie comes before the truth and this priority forces us to reassess our ways of thinking about the nature of truth. Indeed, McGowan argues that Nolan's films reveal the ethical and political importance of creating fictions and even of lying. While other filmmakers have tried to discover truth through the cinema, Nolan is the first filmmaker to devote himself entirely to the fictionality of the medium and McGowan discloses how Nolan uses its tendency to deceive as the basis for a new kind of philosophical filmmaking. He shows how Nolan's insistence on the priority of the fiction aligns his films with Hegel's philosophy and understands Nolan as a thoroughly Hegelian filmmaker.

Memento Andrew Kania, 2009-06-02 Within a short space of time the film Memento has already been hailed as a modern classic. Memorably narrated in reverse from the perspective of Leonard Shelby, the film's central character, it follows Leonard's chaotic and visceral quest to discover the identity of his wife's killer and avenge her murder despite his inability to form new long-term memories. This is the first book to explore and address the myriad philosophical questions raised by the film concerning personal identity, free will, memory, knowledge, and action. It also explores problems in aesthetics raised by the film through its narrative structure, ontology, and genre. Beginning with a helpful introduction that places the film in context and maps out its complex structure, specially commissioned chapters examine the following topics: memory, emotion, and self-consciousness; agency, free will, and responsibility; personal identity; narrative and popular cinema; the film genre of neo-noir; Memento and multimedia. Including annotated further reading at the end of each chapter, Memento is essential reading for students interested in philosophy and film studies.

Christopher Nolan Robbie Goh, 2021 Christopher Nolan is the writer and director of Hollywood blockbusters like The Dark Knight and The Dark Knight Rises and also of arthouse films like Memento and Inception. Underlying his staggering commercial success, however, is a darker sensibility that questions the veracity of human knowledge, the allure of appearance over reality, and the latent disorder in contemporary society. This appreciation of the sinister owes a huge debt to philosophy and especially modern thinkers like Friedrich Nietzsche, Sigmund Freud, and Jacques Derrida. Taking a thematic approach to Nolan's oeuvre, Robbie Goh examines how the director's postmodern inclinations manifest themselves in non-linearity, causal agnosticism, the threat of social anarchy, and the frequent use of the mise en abyme, while running counter to these are narratives of heroism, moral responsibility, and the dignity of human choice. For Goh, Nolan is a reluctant postmodernist. His films reflect the cynicism of the modern world but with their representation of heroic moral triumphs they also resist it.

Inception and Philosophy Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2011 A philosophical look at the movie Inception and its brilliant metaphysical puzzles. Is the top still spinning? Was it all a dream? In the world of Christopher Nolan's four-time Academy Award-winning movie, people can share one another's dreams and alter their beliefs and thoughts. Inception is a metaphysical heist film that raises more questions than it answers: Can we know what is real?
